The Plot of The Black Sheep Affair

The movie begins with a tense scene where Yim Dong (Vincent Zhao) and his partner Hung Wai-Kwok (Ken Wong) are trying to stop a group of terrorists from hijacking a plane. Yim Dong manages to board the plane and fight off the terrorists, but he also disobeys his commander's orders and causes a lot of collateral damage. As a result, he is demoted and transferred to Lavernia, a small and unstable country in Eastern Europe that is plagued by civil war and corruption.

Meanwhile, in Lavernia, a Japanese cult leader named Keizo Mishima (Andrew Lin) is planning to unleash a deadly biological weapon called Tasta on the world. He has a secret base in Lavernia where he conducts experiments on human subjects and develops his weapon. He also has a loyal army of followers who are willing to die for him and his cause.

One of Mishima's followers is Chan Pun (Shu Qi), Yim Dong's ex-girlfriend who left China after the Tiananmen Square incident. She joined the cult because she was disillusioned with the world and wanted to find a new purpose in life. However, she soon realizes that Mishima is not the benevolent leader he claims to be, but a ruthless and cruel man who cares nothing for human life.

When Yim Dong arrives in Lavernia, he is assigned to protect the Chinese ambassador to Lavernia,

Lone Moon (Kenneth Tsang), who is also an old friend of his father. Yim Dong soon finds out that Lone Moon is involved in a secret deal with Mishima, who wants to buy some nuclear materials from him. Yim Dong also encounters Chan Pun, who recognizes him but pretends not to know him.

As the movie progresses, Yim Dong and Chan Pun become involved in a series of events that put them in conflict with Mishima and his cult. Yim Dong tries to stop Mishima from launching his weapon, while Chan Pun tries to escape from his clutches. Along the way, they face many dangers and challenges, as well as rediscover their feelings for each other.

The Characters of The Black Sheep Affair

The movie features a cast of talented actors who bring their characters to life with their performances. Here are some of the main characters of The Black Sheep Affair:

- Yim Dong (Vincent Zhao): The protagonist of the movie, Yim Dong is a brave and loyal cop who loves his country and his job. He is skilled in martial arts and firearms, and can handle any situation with ease. He is also stubborn and reckless, which often gets him into trouble. He still has feelings for Chan Pun, whom he hasn't seen for years.
- Chan Pun (Shu Qi): The female lead of the movie, Chan Pun is a beautiful and intelligent woman who joined the Aum Shinryuu cult after leaving China. She was once an idealistic student who participated in the democracy movement in Tiananmen Square, but she became disillusioned with the world after witnessing the violence and oppression. She hoped to find peace and happiness in the cult, but she soon realized that it was a trap. She still loves Yim Dong, but she is afraid to admit it.
- Keizo Mishima (Andrew Lin): The main antagonist of the movie, Keizo Mishima is the charismatic and evil leader of the Aum Shinryuu cult. He claims to be a prophet who can bring salvation to humanity, but he is actually a megalomaniac who wants to destroy the world with his biological weapon. He is ruthless and cunning, and will stop at nothing to achieve his goals. He has a twisted obsession with Chan Pun, whom he considers his personal property.
- Hung Wai-Kwok (Ken Wong): Yim Dong's partner and friend, Hung Wai-Kwok is a loyal and reliable cop who always supports Yim Dong. He is also humorous and witty, and often lightens up the mood with his jokes. He follows Yim Dong to Lavernia to help him with his mission.
